

THE 9th IAMANEH WORLD CONFERENCE, EGYPT NOVEMBER 1-3, 2006

The International Association of Maternal and Neonatal Health (IAMANEH) and
The Geneva Foundation for Medical Education and Research (GFMER)

---

Workshop on Evidence-based decision making

Date: October 31, 2006

Venue: Cairo Marriot Hotel

Course description

Course Objective

Faculty

Chairman: Prof. Aldo Campana (Switzerland)
Prof. Mohamad Aboulghar (Egypt)

Lecturers (alphabetic)

Abdelhamid Attia (Egypt)

Amr Nadim (Egypt)

Hesham Al-Inany (Egypt)

Magdy Ibrahim (Egypt)

Metin Gülmezoglu (WHO) member of WHO/Department of Reproductive Health and Research

Mohamad Aboulghar (Egypt)

Regina Kulier (GFMER). Editor in chief of Reproductive Health

Topics

- Introduction
- Research synthesis
- Critical appraisal
- WHO Reproductive Health Library
- Resources of EBM.
- Outlines of Study design and methodology
- The randomized controlled trials.
- Information mastery.
- Clinical Topics (EBM appraised)
- Screening of foetal chromosomal anomalies (covering amniocentesis, CVS, biochemical and US screening).
- Recurrent miscarriage.
- Toxoplasmosis in pregnancy (you know how this is exaggerated in our country).
- Vaccination During Pregnancy
- TORCH screening, effects, and management.
- Contraception.

General Notes

- number of participants will have to be restricted to 20-30
- There will be workstations (computers and internet access) available for the practical practice of the participants
- participants mainly Ob GYN and Neonatology specialists

Registration Fees: $ 300

Deadline for Registration: September 30, 2006 (or if target number of participants is reached)

Registration Headquarters:

Pioneer Events

Registration Form