

9th World IAMANEH Congress

IAMANEH stands for the International Association of Maternal and Neonatal Health (Geneva). The IAMANEH World Conferences are held every three years in a developing country. Previous conferences were in Malaysia (2003), South Africa (2000), Brazil (1997), Bangladesh (1994), Indonesia (1991), Pakistan (1987), Tunisia (1984) and Philippines (1981). The Egyptian sections of IAMANEH (Egyptian Society of Maternal and Neonatal Health - ESMANEH) will co-host the 9th World IAMANEH Congress in Cairo, Egypt from 1 to 3 November 2006. The theme of the congress is the “The health problems facing the mother and her newborn in the developing countries”. The national sections of IAMANEH from 34 countries will send delegates to participate in this conference. The three-yearly general assembly meeting of IAMANEH will be held during the conference. International experts in the field of Perinatology from all over the world will address the conference. Pre-Congress workshops include Research Methodology and evidence based medicine, and detection of congenital anomalies by ultrasound. Estimated attendances for the conference are around 500 physicians. The social program includes tours around Cairo, trips to Alexandria, Luxor and Aswan as well as the Red Sea delights.
