User Guide

To Listen and Participate to a Webcast

On the day of the webcast, go to the link to a specific presentation, for example: http://www.dudal.net/dudal/apps/jws/uiclient?/raft/test/20100401_0900

By clicking on it, you will launch the Dudal application which will then load the presentation.

If you don't have a link and want to follow or replay a presentation, you can select it from the www.dudal.net website. Click on "Follow an educational session".

The slides of the presentation are then downloaded from the server. It is recommended that, when participating to a live session, you connect to the server a few minutes in advance, so that these slides, which can sometimes be quite large, are downloaded before the presentation starts. This is particularly important in situations where the bandwidth is limited.

If the presentation has already taken place or is currently taking place, it will start playing immediately. If it has not started yet, you will be placed in a waiting mode until it actually starts being webcast.

You may pause, move back and replay or move forwards using the various arrows:

You may also ask questions to the presenter by selecting "Ask a question":

You can compose a message, with your name, a subject and a text, then click on "Send":
