

Geneva Foundation for Medical Education and Research

Online Public Health Course

Emergency and Surgical Care in Universal Health Coverage

The course aims to provide participants with knowledge, research and competencies in addressing emergency and surgical care in meeting the Sustainable Development Goals within the framework of Universal Health Coverage.

- Who is this course for?

Students, healthcare providers, professionals interested in public health

- How much time will it take?

Approximately 4 hours

- Is the course free?

Absolutely! You can also upgrade it anytime for 97 USD to obtain a certificate

- What are the benefits of upgrading?

You can participate in Global Discussion Forum, MCQ test, and receive CPD credits

Click to visit our website: <https://www.gfmer.ch/surgery/index.htm>